British Aircraft Orders

Ottawa, July 21st.—The aircraft manufacturing industry in Canada is to enter a new era of activity. A mission from London will shortly come to Canada to negotiate with Canadian factories for the production of large bombing aircraft for the Royal Air Force. At the head of the mission will be Sir Hamilton Lever, director of Imperial Airways and with him will be Marshall of the Royal Air Force, Sir Edward Ellington, Mr. E. Handley Page and Mr. A. H. Self. It is quite clear that the British government would not send out such a representative mission at this unless they were much in earnest and ready to place substantial orders in the hands of the Canadian manufacturers. Much new equipment will probably have to be installed in the factories. This will take time. It will probably be a long term plan which will be discussed by the members of the mission with the aircraft industry in this country. But it is certain that the British government is convinced from the report of the air mission which visited here a short time ago that Canada is in a position to turn out satisfactory aircraft. It has been said that orders totalling 100 million dollars may be placed in Canada, but that is for the future to show.

An expert from the Royal Air Force will also come to Canada, to discuss the training of R. A. F. pilots in this country. The bitter controversy that raged about this question in the final hours of the session before prorogation, the speeches at the Conservative convention and the explanation of the government's attitude by the prime minister have been fully covered in the daily press throughout the country, and need no further mention. Nothing will be known of the number of men the R. A. F. want to train in Canada or the conditions under which the training will be carried out until the expert arrives and discusses plans with government officials here. The Prime Minister recently stated that his offer to the British government was gratefully received by the British authorities, who, in the spirit of cooperation which is in evidence it seems to the ordinary layman that there should be little difficulty for the R. A. F. to make use of the facilities for training in this country under the discipline and with the wholehearted cooperation of the department of national defence. It may be assumed that the air school would not be debared from utilization of the best British instructional and technical skill available. However all these matters will be included in the general arrangements.

The new leader of the National Conservative party, Dr. Manion, is now a member of the House of Commons. He will naturally want to get a seat. There are now two vacancies in Ontario, in London and South West, and it is possible according to a precedent that has been followed at times in the past that one of these seats will be given to him by acclamation. The decision on this has to be made by the constituencies themselves. Both seats now open were held by Conservatives.

The announced retirement of Gen. Ormond from the position of superintendent of penitentiaries in Canada is the first step taken by the department of justice to carry out suggestions in penal administration suggested by the Archambault royal commission report. The legislation founded on this report which had recommended the appointment of three commissioners to supervise the penal system, passed the house of commons but in the final hours of the session was defeated in the senate. The reorganization of the penitentiaries branch will be carried out as far as this can be done without the passage of legislation. The minister of justice will shortly announce the general plan of reform. Next session legislation will again be placed before parliament.

International Wheat Markets
As Canada will soon be marketing her wheat crop which promises to be a very substantial one, interest centres on the situation in the world wheat trade which has been under discussion at the World Wheat Convention held at London. The heavy crops held in America and the crop conditions in the United States are of great importance.

The total number of persons employed by the company at May 31, 1938 was 2209, this while the largest staff since 1930.

It is pointed out that the second six months' period of the company's operations, embracing the harvesting seasons of both the Northern and Southern Hemisphere, accounts for substantially the greater portion of the year's sales. The results of the last six months of the fiscal year depend upon economic and crop conditions in both Hemispheres, the present outlook is favourable.

gating 967 million bushels, which domestic requirements are about 750 million, means an export surplus from this crop of 200 million bushels, over and above the market. It may well be hoped that the discussions at London will help the situation through cooperation among the exporting countries. Canada is fortunately situated because of her extremely small crop over, which will amount to about 27 million bushels or thereabouts on July 31st. She has another source of strength in the quality and careful grading of her wheat, and in the benefit of the imperial preference which she enjoys on the United Kingdom market.

The cost of ratio sets in Canada, the difference between the prices in Canada and the United States have been the subject of lively discussion before the Tariff Board. While representatives of the industry brought forward arguments to explain the higher prices in Canada the chairman of the board, Mr. Sedgewick said he had difficulty in understanding why the spread should be so high. "In the automobile field," he said "the spread is about 25 per cent, while the spread in radio set prices is from 35 to 70 per cent. That is hard to understand." The finding of the board will be handed later to the government.

A FARMER'S MUSINGS

(By Tim Longbeham)

According to a recent statement in the daily press, there are 20,000 factories in Ontario, and recruiting is so brisk that the party expects to have a 100,000 membership before the close of the year.

Since Ontario also harbours plenty of communists, it will not be necessary for these political opponents to proceed overseas to fight when the European nations become involved in another bloodthirsty encounter.

At the moment, it is interesting to note that Fascism is quickly tolerated in Quebec, while the padlock act ties the communist party into a knot.
 This sort of performance is what we call Democracy Run Amok, for if liberty of action is granted to one, why should it be denied to the other?

The antics of a 2 year old Bull Terrier frequently amuse the farmer and his Missus.

For the last 8 or 9 weeks Biddy has been taking care of a dozen young turkeys, and when she decides to pay for daily board by laying an egg, she herds her brood down to the hen house.

The pullets are quite pliant but the old sire occupies the nest so long that they frequently wander away.

The fun begins when she realizes that her babies have deserted her, and her manner of locating them is rather unique.

First of all she gets on top of the poultry house, and from that point of vantage she makes it known by a series of loud cackles that she is again ready to assume her maternal responsibilities.

When this performance is unsuccessful, upon the cow shed she goes, and the moment she spots the youngsters in the nearby garden away she flies to join them, looking more like a brick hurtling through the air than a bird on wings.

A lady scribbler who interviewed the mother of the famous quints ended her article in a rather unkind fashion.

After reciting the most clothes and gowns which Mrs. Dionne wore, she had to tell her readers that the good woman's stockings were full of runs.

Now wasn't that what the girls themselves would describe as "Catty." Don't any of you farm boys jump in to the troubled sea of matrimony just because a city shoe merchant urges you to wed the gals who know where to obtain swell foot wear at a reasonable price.

Pick a lassie who can milk, cook and darn, and if she can also hoe and run the binder in a pinch, hurry her to the altar before another wise lad gets anxious about such a valuable prize.

THE WHEAT BOARD
 The report from Ottawa that the wheat board would resume operations with the movement of the 1938 crop must have brought pleasure to many western citizens. Even although the initial payment may be rather small, anything is better than a return of the demoralizing conditions which prevailed during the fall of 1932.

Large quantities of high grade wheat were then sold for little more than the cost of harvesting, and the evil consequences of the proceedings still linger in the farm homes of the prairie provinces.

It is also to be hoped that the board will be able to make a closer scrutiny of the transactions on the grain exchange than formerly. Legiti-mate buying and selling can be carried on without the aid of professionals who care nothing about the effects of their speculations on the welfare of others.

Through high tariffs and various forms of legislation our manufacturers and financial institutions are fully protected in their undertakings, and it is high time that the wheat growers receive a better consideration.

An aggressive Wheat Board, free from the contaminating influence of party politics, can be of genuine service to these harassed individuals and also add to the comfort and efficiency of others not so unhappily situated.

CHINA AFTER A YEAR OF WAR

—1:07:—

Hankow, China, July 21
 China will not be conquered!
 As the world reads of our great cities leveled, our countryside plighted, the homes of our ancestors destroyed, our provinces overrun and our people slaughtered or subjected to barbaric insults unpeakable, the world must know that our cause is just.

Let it know also that the ultimate victory is ours.

A year ago the cruel greed of our neighbor forced our Government beyond the limit of endurance and plunged our unprepared and peace-loving people into war. With the best of motives friendly powers have sought to end this war, to offer mediation which might lead to a compromise.

But we cannot hope for the temporary safety that a compromise might offer. We are fighting for our existence.

We cannot stop midway to seek peace. If we should do so prior to the attainment of the object for which we are putting up resistance, it will mean the subjugation of our nation and annihilation of our race.

Never in history has any Nation worthy of the name survived without sacrifice, or engaged peace with struggle. It is to survive as a Nation and to guarantee peace for our people and the generations of Chinese which are to come that we are struggling and will continue to struggle.

We have lost cities, but the foundation, the hope of our prolonged resistance is not to be found in metropolitan centers but in the country, in the villages, and in willingness to sacrifice and endure, in the determination to resist which millenniums of living close to the earth have engendered in our people.

We have lost territory, but we have

THE SPORTS LEDGER

The War Lords of Japan once again electrified the world particularly the sports world by cancelling the 1940 Olympic Games. It seems that according to higher Japanese circles the games would stir up too much international feeling which would tend to lessen the War spirit of the Japanese people. It is very unfortunate indeed that a few Militaristic war fiends should control the private feelings of a peace desiring people. Without doubt the average man from Nippon has no more desire to mangle or be mangled by wars of conquest than does the average Canadian. Sports are international in spirit, but higher Japan commands Nationalism, thus the Olympic Games suffer cancellation. We sportsmen regret this action without but one precedent that of 1916 olympiad which was to be held in Berlin but again a nationalistic war prevented it. War and sportsmanship cannot mix. Somewhere is not playing the game.

Fred Perry, English Tennis Star arrives in Montreal next week to assist in training Canada's Davis Cup team. While here in May the former World's amateur champion offered his services providing his plans would permit him being in Montreal while the matches were being played.

Six Canadian Marksmen qualified in the first round of the Bisley Shoot for the first stage of the King's prize.

THE WORLD OF WHEAT

By M. L. G. Strange Director "Crop Testing Plan"

We all note with sadness that Mr. George Broadbent, admittedly the greatest expert in the world on international grain, is dead.

Mr. Broadbent was connected with the great wheat industry in England even before the first shipment of wheat left Western Canada 61 years ago.

He was ever a most sympathetic friend to the producers of all countries, and he was never tired of drawing attention to the difficulties farmers had to contend with.

He ranks, in my humble opinion, in his service to agriculture with the greatest plant breeders and agricultural scientists.

CANADA AT WORK AND PLAN

TORONTO—Dr. Charles Steacie, Executive Director of the Canadian United States Good Neighbor League in New York, outlining the program to Canadian leaders, said in place of an apparent trend toward more powerful dictatorship, it was necessary for Canada and the United States to unite in defense of democratic policies.

Canadian participation in a committee headed by Dr. H. J. Cody, President of the University of Toronto, October, 27 has been tentatively set as the date of the Good Neighbor League's celebration.
